Express Company Claims the $10,000 Was Stolen Hore.

The Bankers Believe the Robbery Was Committed En Route.

From developments to-day it appears that the package of $10,000 shipped by Edunts Bross, bankers, of 120 Broadway, through Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Express, to the city mayings Bank, of Galveston, Tex., had its entents removed and ellips of brown pages substituted before it reached the office of Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Express, at 63 Broadway.

The package was delivered to John W. McCarthy, the cashier of the bank is Galveston, by the Express Company's representative yesterday, and signed for, but the expresses did not wait to see the package speaks.

When Cashier McCarthy opesed the mediage it was found to contain a state of brown paper out the size of banknotes.

Cashier McCarthy immediately called the President of the bank, and Wells, Pargo & Co.'s office was notified.

Co. s office was notified. At the banking-house of Keuntze Bros. this morning. Cashier Phillips said to an Eventse WORLD reporter:
